

The logo for RAM (Responsible Art Market) features the letters 'RAM' in a large, white, serif font. The 'R' is stylized with a vertical line extending downwards from its base. The background of the entire page is a dense, repeating pattern of blue, interlocking geometric shapes that resemble stylized links or a complex knotwork.

Responsible Art Market

Building an Art Market 2.0

Art Transaction Due Diligence Toolkit

Friday, 2 February 2018 | 08:30 - 12:30
artgenève, Salon d'art - Palexpo, Geneva

Building an Art Market 2.0

With today's art market coming under increasing pressure to self-reflect and adapt to new challenges, the Responsible Art Market Initiative (RAM) continues to foster the dialogue on responsible art market practices.

For its second edition, RAM will be launching its "Art Transaction Due Diligence Toolkit" and discussing the importance of due diligence and the place of technology in modern-day art transactions. What opportunities and threats do they present for art professionals and collectors ?

08:30	Registration
09:00	Welcome & opening remarks Pierre Gabus , Lawyer and President of the Art Law Foundation, Geneva
09:10	RAM's Art Transaction Due Diligence Toolkit and other updates With its latest project, the "Art Transaction Due Diligence Toolkit", RAM aims to explore how a "risk based" approach to due diligence can help art businesses and collectors focus their resources and manage their risks. Sandrine Giroud , Lawyer and Board Member of the Art Law Foundation, Geneva Mathilde Heaton , Lawyer and Consultant, Art Law Advisory and Art-Law Centre, University of Geneva
09:30	Inside art transaction due diligence. Demystifying the myth Our panel of experts will examine the importance and challenges of art transaction due diligence from different professional perspectives, including: museums, art market professionals, art finance, art fairs and insurance. Chair: Anne Laure Bandle , Lawyer and Director of the Art Law Foundation, Geneva <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Heidi Amrein, Chief curator, Swiss National Museum• Thomas Belohlavek, Director, Axa Art• Emilie Mermillod, Director, Seydoux & Associés Fine Art SA• Johannes Nathan, Director, Nathan Fine Art and Board Member of the Swiss Art Trading Association• Freya Stewart, CEO Art Lending and General Counsel, The Fine Art Group
10:45	Coffee break
11:15	Digital disruption: Opportunity or threat for the art market? Technology is changing the way we transact and interact with art. In this panel discussion we will explore new technologies for tagging, tracing and authenticating artworks and examine the opportunities, challenges and risks they present. Is the move towards traceability and decentralised data at the cost of confidentiality and security? Chair: Mathilde Heaton , Lawyer and Consultant, Art Law Advisory and Art-Law Centre, University of Geneva <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Alexandre Catsicas, CEO Artmyn SA• Philippe Gilliéron, Lawyer and Professor, University of Lausanne• Laura Gowen, Director, Gowen Contemporary• Marco Grossi, Director, Deloitte AG
12:30	Closing remarks Marc-André Renold , Lawyer, Director of the Art-Law Centre and Professor, University of Geneva Thomas Hug , Director of artgenève and artmonte-carlo Visit of artgenève, salon d'art

Registration

Register for the event online and by 26 January 2018 using the following link:
<http://responsibleartmarket.org/event-registration>

Please register in advance as you may not register at the venue.

If you have any questions, please email registration@responsibleartmarket.org.

Registration Fees

- CHF 100 – for members of the Art Law Foundation
- CHF 150 – for non-members
- CHF 50 – for students and trainee lawyers

Payment

- Bank Transfer: To the Art Law Foundation
Postfinance – 4808 Zofingen
Account No: 17-60083-5 – IBAN: CH27 0900 0000 1706 0083 5 – Bic/Swift: POFICHBEXXX
- Invoice

With the support of

SEYDOUX & ASSOCIÉS Fine Art SA

Mæcenas

CHRISTIE'S

With the cooperation of

The Responsible Art Market Initiative (RAM)'s mission:

To raise awareness amongst Art Businesses of risks faced by the art industry and provide practical guidance on establishing and implementing responsible practices to address those risks.